

HOPE For A More Peaceful World

Best Practices for Bully Prevention & School Violence
6th Annual IBPA Conference
November 16–18, 2009 | Pittsburgh, PA

Promoting Positive School Culture • Building Resiliency • Improving Student Learning & Health

Presenting sponsor

The 6th Annual International Bullying Prevention Association Conference will provide the latest research and evidence-based best practices for identifying, correcting and preventing bullying and cyberbullying. Make your plans now to network with bullying prevention professionals and researchers from around the world.

The International Bullying Prevention Association provides excellent learning and professional development opportunities for those involved in bullying prevention. Many of the workshops presented in breakout sessions offer current evidence-supported best practices, practical techniques for use in the classroom and school grounds, the latest research and an opportunity to network with your colleagues from all over the United States and around the world.
